Y-Teen Club Enjoys Party

"Ilixa Athenas." Y-Teen Club, of North Torrance High School held a masquerade party Saturday evening, Oct. 29, at the YWCA in Torrance. Each member invited her date and one couple as guests, and all were dressed in costume with Kathy Golphenee and Charlie Schraeder winning the prizes for best costumes. Games and dancing were the entertainment for the evening. Mary Payne, social chairman, was in charge of the games which included "The Broom Dance" won by Jerry Hurst and Diane Hogue; "Pin the Stem on the Pumpkin" won by Jerry Ritter. The highlight of the evening was the reading of a story "The Gruesome Tale" by Diane Liken, club presdent. It was a story of a ghost and how it looked after it was dead. Everyone sat in a circle in the darkened room and during the reading Pam Hiner, Diane Hogue and Karen McGady passed around peeled grapes for the ghost's eyes; dried prunes for toes; dried figs for its ears; plastic gloves filled with wet sand for hands; liver for its tongue; chicken bones for its bones; alligator leather for its skin and wet spaghetti for its veins. Jean Giordano acted the part of the "Grim Reaper" during the reading. Punch and sandwiches were served buffet style throughout the evening with popcorn balls given to all.

Terry, Council President, reminds all unit presidents to bring their Christmas gifts for the 33rd District Christmas project, gifts for the Afterbaugh & Page Boys' Home in Los Angeles. Mothersingers from Carl Steele Elementary School, the Steele Belles, will sing several Christmas numbers for the group. Honored guests who have been invited from the Torrance Unified School District include: Dr. J. H. Hull, Mr. Sam Waldrip, Dr. A.N. Posner, Dr. Louis Kaplan, and Mrs. Margaret Denmark. Mr. William Boswell, President of the Board of Education has also been invited to attend.

Newton

The week of November 28 through December 3, Newton PTA will sponsor "Christmas for the Navajos." Gifts of warm clothing, warm bedding, shoes, boots, canned milk and other canned goods as well as serviceable toys are needed. If you have any articles that need to be picked up you may call Mrs. Warren Post, PTA President.

Meadowpark

Battalion Chief Worthington, and his assistant of the Torrance Fire Department were featured recently at the regular meeting of the Meadowpark PTA. Demonstrations showing the hazards of fire and how to prevent them was shown. Mrs. Louis Sodaro, newly elected president of Meadowpark, presided. Other officers ratified were Mrs. Walter Marshall, first vice-president, and Mrs. James Rae, 2nd vice-president. The resignation of Mrs. Leon Maxey, as president, was accepted with regret.

Calle Mayor

Methods of teaching reading was the emphasis at the recent monthly meeting of the Calle Mayor PTA. Mrs. Carl Fox, primary multi-grade teacher acted as mistress of ceremonies and introduced each teacher who in turn talked about reading and methods that are used in their rooms. Mrs. George Papadakis, 7th and 8th grade teacher and Mrs. Bonnie Ruchelstand, 2nd grade teacher, acted as parent and teacher for a good or poor parent-teacher conference.

Voter League Meets Slated

The study of California State Finance will be completed this week as the League of Women Voters hold unit meetings under the leadership of Mrs. R. T. McCoy.

Unit 1 will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. John Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Rd., Rolling Hills. Bring sack lunch for noon. Unit 2 will meet Tuesday, 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. John Hummer, 2525 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes Estates.
